Attorneys Darcy Levy and Nora Pincus Join Welborn Sullivan

September 22, 2010 (Denver, CO). Attorneys Darcy Levy and Nora Pincus join the Energy and Natural Resources firm of Welborn Sullivan Meck & Tooley P.C.

Darcy Levy grew up in Colorado but began her legal career in Boston, Massachusetts at Dewey & LeBoeuf LLP. She received a B.A. in History and Political Science from Yale University and a J.D. from Boston College School of Law. A corporate attorney, Ms. Levy focuses her practice on representing public and private companies in corporate finance transactions and mergers and acquisitions, as well as providing advice regarding federal and state securities laws and general corporate governance. Ms. Levy's pro bono experience includes corporate work for non-profit organizations as well as immigration and asylum work. Ms. Levy is currently licensed in Massachusetts, but not Colorado.

Nora Pincus received a B.A. in history from the University of Utah and a J.D. from the University of Denver. After law school, Ms. Pincus served a two-year clerkship with the Honorable Justice Alex J. Martinez at the Colorado Supreme Court. She focuses her practice on water law, commercial and natural resources litigation. Ms. Pincus serves on the Associate Board, Executive Council of the Rocky Mountain Children's Law Center.

Welborn Sullivan Meck & Tooley P.C. is an established leader in natural resources law, business transactions and litigation.
