Laura Lindley, Sarah Sorum and Allison MacKinnon Join Welborn Sullivan Meck & Tooley, P.C.

Denver – January 5, 2015 – The energy and natural resources firm of Welborn Sullivan Meck & Tooley, P.C. is pleased to announce that preeminent Denver oil and gas attorneys Laura Lindley, Sarah Sorum and Allison MacKinnon (née Preiss) have joined the firm effective January 1.

“We are thrilled to have these three excellent lawyers from the Bjork Lindley firm join us. Laura is a leader of the natural resource bar, who is known and respected by her peers as the ‘go to’ lawyer for public land and oil and gas solutions. Sarah and Allison are welcome new additions to our firm’s deep title practice,” said Ken Jones, managing partner.

Laura Lindley is a nationally respected natural resource lawyer with broad experience including in-depth title opinions, acquisitions and divestures, federal unit formation, royalties and appellate work before the Interior Board of Land Appeals. She is perhaps best recognized for her experience in assisting clients with energy projects on public lands where she brings to bear her knowledge of federal environmental, wildlife and cultural resources law to navigate complex challenges. Ms. Lindley was a founding member of the well-recognized natural resource firm of Bjork Lindley Little.

Sarah Sorum’s practice focuses on oil and gas law with an emphasis on oil and gas title work. She has prepared numerous drilling and division order title opinions and acquisition title opinions in Colorado, North Dakota and Wyoming. Sarah received her B.A. from the University of Washington in 2003 and her J.D. from the University of Colorado School of Law in 2007.

Allison MacKinnon (née Preiss) received her B.A. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 2007 and her J.D. from the University of Colorado School of Law in 2011. Ms. MacKinnon’s practice focuses on oil and gas title work in Colorado and Wyoming.

Welborn Sullivan Meck & Tooley, P.C. is an established leader in natural resources law, business transactions and litigation. With offices in Denver, Colorado and Casper, Wyoming, the firm’s attorneys serve clients in the Rocky Mountains and beyond. For more information: www.wsmtlaw.com
